

can't do what he wants to.

However later on my small son you will agree with me that schools do a man good.

When you go to school I want you to be one of the best sports at it, and as long as you work harder than I did, I don't mind if you aren't very very brave.

You are at present rather a wonderful small person later on you'll find you aren't.
The best thing to be then is a decent sensible good sort.

You'll excuse me if I am moralising old chap. If you put this letter in your

Gandahar
Tidworth

25/4/17.

hey wee Froggie Are you growing up fast. I am missing all your baby prancing so please don't be too big when I see you again.

I have just written to your Mum, she is a nice girl don't you think so. You are taking care of her aren't you. I don't want to find her looking one day older when I see her next.

Your daddy is at present at another school, where it is very nice in many ways but still it is a school and he sorted and read it again in about 17 years time you will possibly find a lot of fresh lines in it.

It's a rotten old war, boy, but all the good sorts who can get into it are in it.

I must now wake up my sleeping assistant who I'm afraid has his duty book or the wife and after I have had a bath and a cup of tea I am going back home.

Please don't forget me and keep humming young and pretty and safe, and happy.

God bless yr old chap.

Your loving Daddy
